Date: Saturdays, July 12th–August 16th

This course is designed to teach basic drawing techniques using a variety of materials. This class is meant for persons who are curious beginners. Please come to class with some images or ideas that you would like to work from. Understand the first few classes will include practice and experimentation with various exercises to practice accuracy. You will be working from studio still lifes, your own ideas, and possibly outdoors as weather permits. You will leave class with a sketchbook full of exercises to revisit as well as our goal of one finished work by the end of the session. Plan to have on one-on-one and group demonstrations, as well as mid-point discussions.
